be agreed upon with participants, and will proceed, with your own fabric, to cutting on fabric and garment construction, first manually and then with the sewing machine.

The simplicity and precision of the program makes the course suitable even for those approaching sewing for the first time.

At the conclusion of the course, a certificate - diploma of attendance from the Art and Fashion Professional Institute will be issued.

The course aims to develop skill with the use of the sewing machine and acquire dexterity in the construction of your
